The Festival of Village Carols

Saturday 1 December 2018

Grenoside Community Centre, Main Street, Grenoside, Sheffield, S35 8PR

NOTES

Please read the information before completing the booking form.

1. Booking forms are available from 1 October 2018. The form must be posted with cheque(s).
2. If you wish to book for the lunch as well, please send two cheques – one for tickets and books, the other for the buffet lunch. This is because it is not possible for space reasons for all day-time ticket holders to book for the lunch. If your lunch booking is unsuccessful, that cheque will be returned.
3. A limited number of student bursaries are available – please contact Ian Russell on 01224 645486.
4. All ticket holders will receive a complimentary copy of the programme book at the festival.
5. The special prices of the books are for festival-goers only.
6. If you would like to check out the carols in advance, here is a list of what is planned:

‘Awake my Harp’, ‘Back Lane’, ‘Birley Edge’, ‘Diadem’, ‘Good News’, ‘Malin Bridge’, ‘Merry Christmas’, ‘Pentonville’, ‘Portugal’, ‘Ye Sons of Men’: all from The Sheffield Book of Village Carols.

‘Lo, The Eastern Magi Rise’ (Coal Aston), ‘Foolow Doxology’ (Foolow), and ‘On the Dew Besprinkled Lawn’ (Dore): all from The Derbyshire Book of Village Carols.

‘Hark, Hear Ye Not’ and ‘Fern Bank’: the scores for these carols will be included in the 2018 Festival of Village Carols Programme.

7. It is expected that the venue for the Friday evening pre-festival gathering will be the Old Red Lion (‘Top Red’) on Main Street, Grenoside, Sheffield S35 8PR.
8. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope with your booking.

Before posting your booking form, please check that you have included:

- Booking form
- Cheque for tickets and books
- Cheque for lunch (if required)
- Stamped self-addressed envelope

Instrumentalists

If you are an instrumentalist and would like copies of the music transposed to a particular key, please order by 5 November 2018 – £10.00 per set + £1.50 postage. Please contact Ian Russell on 01224 645486.
