**Concessions are for those of State Pensionable age, registered unemployed, full-time students, or children under 16 years. All the carols we will be singing are in The Derbyshire Book of Village Carols, which contains 85 carols from ten villages. The price of this collection listed above represents a discount of £3.00 on the retail price and is only available to workshop participants. If you would like to collect a copy or copies on the day to save postage, please order in advance. If you are an instrumentalist and would like copies of the music transposed to a particular key, please get in touch. There will be a charge for this (£10.00 including p&p) and copies must be ordered by 11 November.*
