

Village Carol Workshop

Saturday 17th November 2018

9.30am til 4:30pm

Howard Arms, Brampton

Carols in the pub; a British tradition!

Come along, have a pint and learn twelve or more favourite carols

Nb special expertise is required, just enthusiasm!

Open to singers and instrumentalists (esp. strings & woodwind)
with music and words provided

The full day costs £15

tickets can be reserved in advance by emailing

rose-ellen@stonesbarn.co.uk

Ian Russell

The arrangements have been specially prepared and edited by Ian and are taken from The Sheffield Book of Village Carols and The Derbyshire Book of Village Carols. Ian is a researcher, singer, musician and festival director, who champions the local traditions of the English Pennines and NE Scotland. Since 1969 he has conducted extensive fieldwork into the singing traditions of South Yorkshire and Derbyshire, especially Christmas carolling. Recent research has focused on the traditional culture of Aberdeenshire, including singing and instrumental traditions. Ian is an emeritus professor at the University of Aberdeen's Elphinstone Institute and has written/edited several books on folk and traditional music. When in Derbyshire he plays melodeon for Winster Morris.